

Notes on Contributors

Jurekah Chene Abrigo is presently working as a research associate at the UP Department of Linguistics. She is currently taking her Master's in ASEAN Studies in UP Open University. Her main research interests include Southeast Asian studies, historiography, and indigenous studies.

Romina Eloisa Manabat Abuan is a Junior Project Officer at the UP Centre International de Formation des Autorités et Leaders (CIFAL), or International Training Centre for Authorities and Leaders, in the Philippines. She is Filipina and was born and raised in Macau SAR. She completed her Bachelors in Government and Public Administration, specializing in International and Public Affairs at the University of Macau, and has a Minor in Portuguese Studies. She is currently pursuing her Masters of Arts in Asian Studies concentrating on Southeast Asia at the Asian Center, University of the Philippines Diliman. Her lived and observed experiences as a second-generation (returnee) and migrant has allowed her to view migration from an insider's and outsider's perspective. Her research interests include Southeast Asia, Migration, Diaspora, and Southeast Asian International Relations.

Rebecca Llaguno Astilla is a graduate of Bachelor of Secondary Education major in Social Studies in Bulacan State University- Malolos Campus. Her passion for history and culture leads her to pursue Master of Arts in Asian Studies at the University of the Philippines-Diliman. She's currently affiliated with Bulacan State University-Sarmiento Campus as a faculty and a co-adviser of SHIELD, a local organization unit of BSEd Social Studies students in the university. She has varied research interests which include Mobility and Migration, Gender Studies, Education, and Cultural diplomacy.

Francisco Deogracias Baes graduated with a degree in Philosophy from the University of the Philippines Diliman. While in the university, his research interests were on the fields of Education, Logic, and Ethics. After graduation, he took a teaching post at the High School Department of Infant Jesus Academy, which led to the development of his current interest in the andragogical approach in the field of Business Operations.

Chloe Eco Brijuega is a customer success associate at Bukas, a fintech startup that offers affordable tuition installment plans to Filipino students. She used to work as a teacher in MapleBear Canadian Preschool and a guidance associate in the College of San Benildo-Rizal. She graduated with a degree in BA Psychology from the University of the Philippines Diliman. One of her undergraduate research studies was called "Effects of Self-Concept Priming and Gender on Prosocial Behavior" which she presented in the Stanford Undergraduate Psychology Conference 2016.

Anthony A. Carandang earned his Doctor of Medicine degree from the University of the East Ramon Magsaysay Memorial Medical Center and is an alumnus of Third World Improv. He is currently interested in applying improvisational practices, skills, mindsets, and principles on non-performative areas or disciplines - particularly in the field of medicine.

Wulmar Cerezo Cerio is a former philosophy senior high school teacher of OB Montessori Center. He earned his Philosophy degree from the University of the Philippines Diliman. Recently, he graduated from the Master of Health Research Ethics Scholarship Program (2020-2021) of the University of Malaya in Malaysia. He is currently working as a technical writer in one of the development projects of USAID in the Philippines.

Noah Cruz is a faculty member at the Department of Linguistics, University of the Philippines Diliman. He is currently pursuing a Master's in Linguistics in the same institution. His primary research interests include phonology, ethnolinguistics, and sociolinguistics.

Nolein Verniz V. Dela Cruz is a graduate student pursuing MA Psychology major in Developmental Psychology at the University of the Philippines Diliman. She is currently working as a Psychometrician at the Loyola Schools Office of Guidance and Counseling (LSOGC), Ateneo De Manila University. She is a Co-Principal Investigator of LSOGC's ongoing research on Animal-Assisted Interventions and is also involved in research projects on teacher well-being. Her research interests focus on attachment, animal-assisted interventions, and young adult development.

Divine Angeli Endriga is an Assistant Professor at the UP Department of Linguistics. She is also taking her doctorate in Linguistics in the same institution. Her research interests include language documentation and description, verbal morphosyntax, ethnolinguistics, translation, and lexicography.

Jairus Diesta Espiritu currently teaches philosophy at the Department of Philosophy in UP Diliman. He also serves as the NSTP Coordinator of the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy. His master's thesis is on Alain Badiou's notion of antiphilosophy and Ludwig Wittgenstein's Philosophical Investigations. His research interests include Analytic Existentialism, Filipino Philosophy, Metaphilosophy, Philosophy of Language, and Philosophy of Religion.

Si Mariyel Hiyas C. Liwanag ay isang Assistant Professor sa Departamento ng Humanidades ng Unibersidad ng Pilipinas Los Banos (UPLB). Nakamit niya ang kanyang digring batsilyer sa Sining Pangkomunikasyon sa UPLB at ang kanyang digring masterado sa Linggwistiks sa Unibersidad ng Pilipinas Diliman. Kasalukuyan siyang mag-aaral ng programang PhD Araling Pilipino - Wika, Kultura at Midya.

Allyn Rey B. Lomboy is a gastroenterologist by profession, currently practicing in Pangasinan. He studied Doctor of Medicine in University of the Philippines Manila, then did further training in Internal Medicine, and later in Gastroenterology, in the UP-Philippine General Hospital. In 2019, he started studying improvisation at the Third World Improv (TWI) school. He eventually finished all five levels of improv school, having done the last two in the middle of the pandemic. With Toto (Anthony A. Carandang), he began to explore the field of Medical Improv and together they hope to introduce the wonders and benefits of this discipline to the Philippine medical community.

Alexander Atrio L. Lopez is an Instructor at the UP Diliman Department of Philosophy where he has taught ethics, philosophy, and other courses. He is finishing his MA Philosophy thesis in the same institution. His undergraduate degrees are BA Philosophy from UP Diliman and BS Basic Medical Sciences from UP Manila. He is a Co-Chair of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities (APRU) Bioethics Working Group. His first co-authored publication is "A fair allocation approach to the ethics of scarce resources in the context of a pandemic: The need to prioritize the worst off in the Philippines". His research interests are ethics, philosophy of mind, and aesthetics.

James Dominic Manrique recently finished his BA Linguistics degree at the UP Department of Linguistics. His research interests include language variation, computer-mediated communication, and language education.

Leander Penaso Marquez is an Assistant Professor at the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy, University of the Philippines Diliman. He has published several articles in local and international journals in addition to having presented some of his research papers in various conferences in Asia and Europe. Leander sits as Co-chair of the Working Group on Bioethics of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities Global Health Program (APRU-GHP) and serves as Junior Ambassador to the Philippines for the Universal Scientific Education and Research Network (USERN). His research interests include Ethics, Epistemology, Bioethics, Research Ethics, Philosophy for Children, Philosophy of Education, and Philosophy and Popular Culture.

Ma. Simeona Martinez teaches cartography and spatial analysis using the Geographic Information Systems (GIS) at the Department of Geography in UP Diliman. She specializes in geospatial technologies and its diverse applications in education, collaborative planning, citizen participation and rights advocacies. She is cartographer and researcher at the Counter-mapping PH Network and a volunteer for SaanYanPH.

Lumberto G. Mendoza is an associate professor at the UP Diliman Department of Philosophy and a research ethics committee member of the National Kidney Transplant Institute. He completed his PhD in Philosophy Degree at the University of Bergen, and has taught various ethics and philosophy courses in UP Los Baños and UP Manila. Mendoza's areas of research include topics related to Wittgenstein, ethics, philosophy of education, and philosophy of technology. His most recent research activities deals with his PhD Incentive Award project entitled "Exploring the idea of Kapwa Ethics."

Marqz Verone Vergara Olivar has a degree in Political Science from the University of the Philippines Diliman where she became one of the founding members of the UP Philosophy for Children Society. She previously taught Research and Social Sciences in a secondary private school in Metro Manila. She is currently an English and Cultural Language Assistant at the Ministry of Education, Culture, and Sport in Madrid, Spain.

Rola Palalon Ombao is a graduate student of the Department of Philosophy, College of Social Sciences, University of the Philippines Diliman. Before this, she used to teach Philosophy at the same department, and she also served as head of the Office of Student Affairs of her college. Rola is writing her master's thesis on teaching bioethics through the dialogic inquiry approach of Philosophy for Children. Her research interests include health, women, and education.

Joseph Palis is an associate professor and chair of the UP Department of Geography. He teaches counter-cartographies, geohumanities, and radical geographies at UP Diliman. His recent publications include Living in a Material (Covid-19) World: Covid-19, Materialities, and Quotidian Geographies in the Philippines (Material Culture, 2022), Geonarratives and counter-mapped storytelling (Reimagining Futures: Decolonisation and Doing Development Differently: Routledge Handbook of Global Development, 2022), Faces Places: Counter-mapping art, subalternities and counterpublics (Art & the Public Sphere, 2021), and Death by Landscape, or re-animating cultural geographies in the Philippines (Philippine Geographical Journal, 2021), among others.

Si Myfel D. Paluga ay Kawaksing Propesor sa Departamento ng Agham Panlipunan sa Unibersidad ng Pilipinas-Mindanao. Kasalukuyan siyang gumagawa ng antropolohiko-etnolohikal na pananaliksik sa katutubong kaalaman, pananaw, at pilosopiya na nakasentro sa mga epiko ng Kabundukang Pantaron at mga kaugnay nitong mga kapookan ng Mindanao, Kabisayaan, at sa ibayo. Naglingkod siya bilang tagapangulo ng Departamento ng Agham Panlipunan (Unibersidad ng Pilipinas-Mindanao) sa loob ng tatlong termino at nakipag-ugnayan sa iba't ibang organisasyon na kumikilos at tumutulong sa mga katutubong lumad ng Mindanao, partikular sa mga Manobo.

Apryl Mae C. Parcon, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor in University of the Philippines Diliman. She is also currently serving as the Graduate Program Coordinator in the Department of Psychology. Her research interests focus on Developmental Psychology particularly on attachment, empathy, prosocial behaviors, parent-child relationships, and family dynamics.

Si Andrea Malaya M. Ragrajio ay Katuwang na Propesor sa Departamento ng Agham Panlipunan ng Unibersidad ng Pilipinas-Mindanao. Kasalukuyan siyang nag-aaral para sa kanyang doktorado sa aghamtao sa Culturele Antropologie en Ontwikkelings-sociologie ng Universiteit Leiden (Olandiya). Noong 2018, nagawaran siya ng Early Career Grant mula sa National Geographic Society para sa pagpapatuloy ng kanyang pananaliksik sa pangotoeb (pagta-tatu) ng Pantaron Manobo at ang kaugnayan nito sa kasarian, katauhan, at mga pananaw sa buhay. Nakatuon itong huli sa pagsusuri sa mga katutubong kaparaanan kung paano hinaharap ang mga kalagayang walang-katiyakan, katulad ng kasalukuyan nating panahon. Ang iba pa niyang interes sa pananaliksik ay nasa larangan ng archaeological heritage at ethnohistory.

Divine Love A. Salvador, Ph.D., R.Psy. is a licensed psychologist and Associate Professor of Clinical Psychology in the Department of Psychology at the University of the Philippines Diliman. She is also a Clinical Supervisor at UPD PsycServ, UP Diliman's mental health and psychosocial support service program. As a researcher and a practicing psychologist, her goal is to develop her own approach to psychotherapy and counseling that is both scientific and appropriate for use with Filipino clients. Her advocacy as an educator is to help clinicians-in-training cultivate ethical sense alongside clinical judgment so that they can provide evidence-informed, competent, and compassionate care.

Vincent Christopher Santiago is currently an instructor and graduate student at the UP Department of Linguistics. His current research project is a grammatical description of Porohanon (ISO 639-3 prh) spoken in the Municipality of Poro, Camotes Islands, Cebu, Philippines.

Christine Belle Esperas Torres is a Senior Researcher at International Justice Mission's Center to End Online Sexual Exploitation of Children. She finished her Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines Sta. Mesa, Manila and went into the field of research. She worked as a Research Associate for Social Weather Stations where she managed advocacy related survey research for different local and international partners including Philippine government agencies. She is currently pursuing Master in Asian studies specializing in Southeast Asia at the Asian Center, University of the Philippines Diliman. Her research interests include culture and arts, social development in Asia, migration, transnational crimes, modern slavery (especially human trafficking), social justice, child protection, and Southeast Asian politics and governance.

Marielle Antoinette H. Zosa is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Philosophy of the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy, University of the Philippines – Diliman. She attained her baccalaureate and master's degrees in Philosophy from the same university. Her recent research endeavors have focused on the capabilities approach, solidarity-based bioethics, and, currently, resilience ethics.