

APPENDIX 1.2

LETTER FROM THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN, UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES DILIMAN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION TO THE UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES BOARD OF REGENTS ON THE RENAMING OF THE UP COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION TO THE CESAR E.A. VIRATA SCHOOL OF BUSINESS, 15 MARCH 2013

Neither Dean Ben Paul Gutierrez's letter nor the attachments thereof indicate that the renaming of the College of Business Administration to the Cesar E.A. Virata School of Business would be the condition to a donation in favor of the university, which would have made the renaming legally tenable under Republic Act No. 1059. In the 1288th Meeting of the UP Board of Regents, held on 20 June 2013, the board confirmed "the Commitment [sic] of Regent Magdaleno B. Albarracin Jr. to Donate [sic] P40 Million as a condition to the renaming . . . after the finality of the Board's approval on the said renaming." Albarracin's name can be seen in Annex B of Gutierrez's letter, listed under "Former Deans of UPCBA (282)." He is identified, besides as UP BOR member, as "Vice-Chairman, Phinma" (OSU 2013).

Subject: Renaming of the U.P. College of Business Administration to the Cesar E.A. Virata School of Business

Dear Honorable Regents:

We respectfully request your approval to rename the University of the Philippines College of Business Administration to the Cesar E.A. Virata School of Business. During its meeting held on 2 July 2012, the faculty of the College of Business Administration unanimously approved to honor its former Dean by renaming the College after him (Annex A). Annex B shows the list of stakeholders who have endorsed the proposal comprised of the alumni, administrative staff and REPS, students and other sectors.

Cesar E.A. Virata is a distinguished graduate, professor and dean of the College, and an honorable public servant who has served as Secretary of Finance and Prime Minister of the Philippines. Dean Virata is looked upon as an influential man in the business community in the Philippines and in the region. His name is more than worthy to be attached to the School of Business of the country's only national university. Dean Virata laid the essential foundations for the development of a strong College of Business Administration which continues to this day and which should continue into the years ahead.

Cesar E.A. Virata was the fifth Dean of the College of Business Administration from 1960 to 1967. He graduated from the University of the Philippines with both the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (cum laude) and Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering degrees in 1952. He completed his Master of Business Administration major in Industrial Management from the Wharton Graduate School of the University of Pennsylvania in 1953. He received the Doctor of Laws degree (honoris causa) from the University of the Philippines in March 1976. He is included in the list of 125 illustrious Wharton alumni during the 125th anniversary of the Wharton School of Finance in 2007 (Annex C).

The naming of a business school after a distinguished person is widespread in American and European universities, e.g., George Baker Graduate School of Business of Harvard, the Haas School of Business of the University of California in Berkeley, the Booth School of Business of the University of Chicago, the Wharton School of Finance, and the Sloan School of Management at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). An Internet survey we conducted revealed that a majority (or 55%) of U.S. and European business schools or colleges are named.

We wish to announce the renaming of the College of Business Administration into the Cesar E.A. Virata School of Business during the College Recognition Ceremonies on 28 April 2013.

We hope for your kind approval.

Sincerely yours,

BEN PAUL B. GUTIERREZ
Dean
