

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Ramon Guillermo is Associate Professor at the Department of Filipino and Philippine Literature at the University of the Philippines-Diliman. He is the author of the books Pook at Paninindigan: Kritika ng Pantayong Pananaw (UP Press, 2009) and of the novel Ang Makina ni Mang Turing (UP Press, 2013). <bomen.guillermo@gmail.com>

Eileen Legaspi-Ramirez is an Assistant Professor at the University of the Philippines Department of Art Studies. She was curatorial consultant of Lopez Museum (2005-2012) and is presently a member of the Advisory Board of Asia Art Archive and Associate Curator of the Artist Pension Trust. She presently teaches courses on art criticism, curatorship, and visual literacy, and was a 2009 fellow of the USA National Endowment for the Arts International Arts Journalism Institute in the Visual Arts. Her writing has appeared in AAA Field Notes, Forum on Contemporary Art and Society, n.paradoxa: international feminist art journal, Metropolis M: Magazine on Contemporary Art, Pananaw: Philippine Journal of Visual Arts, and Ctrl+P: Journal of Contemporary Art, among others. She was a guest curator of the 2011 Jakarta Biennale, and since 1996, has been overseeing the 2012 Alice Awardee for Publications, Pananaw: Philippine Journal of Visual Arts. She is also the Head of Documentation of the independent platform, Back to Square One/Juan. <eilrdas@yahoo.com>

Elena Rivera Mirano is Dean of the University of the Philippines College of Arts and Letters and professor in its Department of Art Studies. In 1986 she mounted a one woman show of her music album Kumintang: Awitin ng mga Tagalog na taga Batangas. She is the choir director of Cherubim and Seraphim. Her publications include Subli: One Dance in Four Voices that received the National Book Award in 1989, and Ang mga Tradisyonal na Musikang Pantinig sa Lumang Bauan, Batangas that was proclaimed best book at the U.P. Diliman Gawad Chancellor Awards in 1998. She is principal author and editor-in-chief of The Life and Works of Marcelo Adonay, which won the National Book Award in 2009. In 2001, she was honored with the Prince Claus Award from the Netherlands. In 2007, she received the Achievement Award in Humanities of the National Research Council of the Philippines. <elena.mirano@gmail.com>

Ruth Jordana L. Pison an Associate Professor at the Department of English and Comparative Literature, College of Arts and Letters, University of the Philippines, Diliman, where she teaches courses on Philippines literature, Philippines women writers in English, and literary criticism. She earned both her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in Comparative Literature in the same University. Her book entitled Alternative Histories: Martial Law Novels as Counter-Memory was published by the UP Press in 2005 and her Dangerous Liaisons: Sexing the Nation in Philippine Novels by Women 1993-2006 was launched in November 2010. <ruthpison@gmail.com>

Maria Lorena Santos earned her PhD at the National University of Singapore where she wrote her dissertation on the cultural phenomenon of global fan communities surrounding the works of—and the works inspired by—Jane Austen. She has delivered talks on the Austen phenomenon, fandom and fan fiction, and popular literature and culture. She also has an undergraduate degree in Creative Writing and a Master's degree in English Language Studies from the University of the Philippines. Santos currently teaches with the University of the Philippines Department of English and Comparative Literature. <lorie.santos@gmail.com>

While working on his Master's degree in Comparative Literature, Oscar T. Serquiña, Jr. serves as an instructor at the Department of Speech Communication and Theatre Arts of the University of the Philippines in Diliman. He was a fellow for literary criticism at the 2012 KRITIKA 2013 National Workshop on Art and Cultural Criticism; a fellow for poetry at the 2010 Silliman National Writers Workshop; and a fellow for poetry at the 2009 UST National Creative Writing Workshop. <osserquina@gmail.com>