

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Jose Carlo Garcia de Pano is an assistant professor at the University of the Philippines Department of Speech Communication and Theatre Arts. He is a Fulbright scholar and a Ph.D. candidate (Communication and Information Sciences) at the University of Alabama. His research interests include persuasion, interpersonal influence, compliance resistance, and source credibility.

Teresa Paula S. De Luna is an Associate Professor from the Department of Speech Communication and Theater Arts (DSCTA) and is currently the Coordinator of the University of the Philippines (UP) Diliman Office of Anti-Sexual Harassment (OASH). She took her BA Speech and Drama and MA in Speech Communication at the DSCTA and finished her Ph.D. in Anthropology at the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy. Her recent publications are with the Journal of Southeast Asian Studies, "Philippine Values in the Supermodern/Hypermodern Age of the Internet," and with UP Diliman's Diliman Gender Review, "Faces of Sexual Harassment in UP Diliman and the OASH Mandate." Her areas of concentration are in the field of Rhetoric, focusing on Digital and Popular Culture, and Intercultural Communication. She is currently working on a project, "Filipin/As: Women in the Philippine Society" with colleagues in the DSCTA in collaboration with the UP Diliman Gender Office.

Mary Jannette L. Pinzon, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor of Speech Communication at the Department of Speech Communication and Theater Arts (DSCTA), at University of the Philippines, Diliman. She earned her Ph.D. in Philippine Studies at UP Diliman. She is a member of the Board of Directors of Speech Communication Organization of the Philippines (SCOP). Dr. Pinzon has written two books. The Rhetorics of Sin, a study on the speeches and the persona of the late Jaime Cardinal Sin, was published by the University of the Philippines Press (2011). She co-authored Powerspeak: Oral Communication in Context, a textbook and resource material for Senior High Oral Communication, published by ABIVA Publishing House, Inc. (2017). She has taught Public Speaking and Persuasion, Philippine Public Address, Interpersonal Communication, Family Communication, among others. Dr. Pinzon is a communication consultant and conducts Effective Communication Skills and Public Presentations Training-Workshops and Seminars in government agencies, NGOs and corporate groups.

Rex Sandro Nepomuceno is an instructor at the Department of Speech Communication and Theatre Arts University of the Philippines Diliman teaching courses on public address and the bases of speech. He is also a graduate student of Malikhayang Pagsulat sa Filipino working on his thesis on poetry and space. His poems have been published by the Sentro ng Wikang Filipino (Agos Journal) and in various independent zines and anthologies. His one-act play "Getsemani" was staged by the Marinduque State College Culture and the Arts Theatre Guild.