

Lilibeth La Ó
"Gabriela"
Collages on paper & gauze
2' x 3'
1996

My artwork is a collage of stories of The Heroism of Women during the revolution and at the same time an expression of the ever present struggle that we, as women are experiencing in our everyday lives. For me, Gabriela Silang is one of the best example of a most extraordinary woman warrior in our history. The gauze, I used as a mist over the pictures to suggest the sense of time passing. The colors red, white and blue to symbolize our flag. The different kinds of stamps used during the revolution also express our struggle for freedom.

The stamps are not the only thing that is important in this collection. The stamps are not the only thing that is important in this collection. The stamps are not the only thing that is important in this collection.

The stamps are not the only thing that is important in this collection. The stamps are not the only thing that is important in this collection.