EMANATION

Anna Fer

These "vintage" drawings are part of a series presented in 1979 entitled "Emanation." They were done through a 10 year period without thought of being shown publicly. The drawings are as pages of a diary... a visual diary. The series delve into the related themes of woman, solitude, pain and emanation - a journey traversing an internal terrain and space of sensibility recorded in the most elementary and convenient means of pencil to paper.
